

Sea Cadets

Let's Review?

PROGRAM INAUGURATION

To evaluate the Fayetteville Division's inaugural year in this program, we should begin with Recruit Orientation. Participation in the Sea Cadet Recruit Orientation is a required first step for individuals who wish to join the program and progress in rank. Next off...

The Recruit Training program of the Naval Sea Cadet Corps, commonly referred to as "Boot Camp," introduces cadets to the principles of military discipline and routine, kicking off their journey in the Sea Cadet Program. During a span of nine days or two weeks, cadets immerse themselves in fundamental Navy concepts, basic seamanship, vital damage control techniques, and how to maintain their living quarters.

Swim Quals

Sea Cadets require that all members successfully complete a swim qualification test before they can take part in any boating activities. As a result, the Fayetteville division dedicated significant time and effort to developing these essential skills and confronting specific fears.

Sea Cadet Fundraiser

Our Sea cadets have organized several fundraisers aimed at supporting our program, uniting our community, and fostering teamwork and innovative skills.

Some of our fundraisers were themed, such as our rose sales for Valentine's Day. Others catered to those with a sweet tooth by offering popcorn. We also held events focused on bringing the community together, like our yard sale.

Our division has been steadily progressing and improving each day. We believe that the best way to continue this growth is through the support of our community. We welcome any ideas or suggestions that can help us build a brighter future.

"You can't do it alone. Be open to collaboration. Find a group of people who challenge and inspire you. Spend a lot of time with them, and it will change your life."

The Color Guard consists of four cadets who showcase the flags of the United States during games and ceremonies. The tradition of presenting Colors has been an important aspect of military customs since the founding of our nation.

We've had two dedicated groups working diligently in a brief time frame, with significant assistance from another program, to hone their Color Guard skills. A heartfelt thank you goes out to them for all their efforts. To date, we've had the honor of performing for both Alpha Academy's elementary school and the 8th grade/senior graduation, with many more milestones on the horizon.
